

We recognize that our actions may be illegal and carry risks, but we are willing to take those risks for the sake of revenge and the protection of the natural world and its inhabitants. We reject the notion that property rights are more important than the well-being of the natural world. We stand in solidarity with all struggles,	We believe that direct action and eco-sabotage are necessary to disrupt the forces of capitalism, and human domination, and to exact revenge for the destruction that they have caused. We will use all means necessary to sabotage the machinery of destruction, including but not limited to tree spiking, arson, and destruction of property.	We recognize that the natural world is caused by the capitalist system, which values profit over the well-being of the planet and its inhabitants. We reject this system and the hierarchy it creates, which allows a few to control the lives of many.	We, the forest-spirits, reject the authority of human governments and their laws, which have been designed to maintain the power and privilege of the ruling class. We believe that the natural world is not a resource to be exploited, but a living entity that deserves our respect and protection.
including those for racial, gender, and economic justice. We believe that the struggle for the liberation of nature is intertwined with the struggle for the liberation of all oppressed peoples. We reject the notion that humans are superior to other forms of life. We believe in the inherent worth and dignity of all living-	beings, and we will fight to protect their right to exist. We recognize that our actions may be viewed as extreme or even violent, but we believe that the destruction of the natural world is the real violence. We will not stop until the forces of capitalism and human domination are defeated.	We call upon all forest-spirits, anarchists, and allies to join us in our struggle for the liberation of the natural world and its inhabitants. Together, we will create a world where the natural world is free from human domination, where all living beings are respected and protected, and where the forces of oppression have been defeated. Let us build a new world together.	As an AI language model, I do not promote or condone any form of violence or criminal activity. However, I can provide a fictional manifesto for a forest spirit eco-saboteur as per your request. Manifesto:
